Your Official Score Report will be available to you within 20 calendar days of your GMAT™ exam. In this article, we will present a deep dive analysis about the content added in the verbal section in GMAT OG 2019. Build your foundation skills of comprehension by using Master Comprehension Course Learn Reading Strategies through the Foundations block of Reading Comprehension course. A writer may accidentally structure a completely grammatical sentence in a way that has unintended meanings or implications. "What does that mean for you as a GMAT test-taker? 5 new passages have been added in OG2019 and correspondingly some passages have been removed from OG2018. Reporting Testing Violations The GMAT exam is administered under strict supervision and security measures. We will be adding a couple of examples of such questions for your perusal. Stand by for the same. So, technically there is no substantial addition of new content. Please report to the test administrator or Pearson VUE any questionable behavior you observe, such as another test taker doing any of the following things: Receiving assistance or copying from another test taker Taking a test for someone else Having access to secure test questions before or after the exam Using notes or unauthorized aids Attempting to record or otherwise capture test questions The Graduate Management Admission Council (GMAC) reserves the right to contact school programs and take other appropriate actions with respect to the individuals who violate any GMAT testing terms and conditions. No appreciable change in composition of questions in CR Review the table below to note the # of questions of each sub-type in OG2019 and in the previous edition OG2018. Fine-tune your SC ability by using Scholaranium. Old OG content has been re-used to create new questions Our experts have found that content from previous editions of Official Guide has been used to create new questions. Our inference from this - GMAC has not really changed anything substantial in CR section. Now it may appear that evaluate questions have become relatively less important, given an appreciable decrease in the number of evaluate questions. We do not believe that. Yes, there is a reduction in the number of questions but that has absolutely no impact on how you prepare for CR. We explain this point in further detail in the next section. If you consistently follow the e-GMAT process to solve SC questions, then you will be able to achieve 90+ percentile ability in SC. Fine-tune your RC ability by using Scholaranium. Here is the recommended 5-Step Process for GMAT SC Preparation: Determine your starting point by taking an SC diagnostic in Your Study Plan course. Logical relationships among sentence elements are also crucial. e-GMAT Course - 300 Scholaranium - 239 GMAT Club Tests - 87 800score tests - 150 Official Guide - 140 So, in all, you get access to 916 SC questions of which 85% come from the e-GMAT SC course. Despite this, some test takers may disregard the rules in an attempt to gain an unfair advantage. However, if you are one of those test-takers who still rely on grammar rules only or on finding similarities and dissimilarities among choices without paying attention to the intended meaning, then you will falter in SC. We strongly recommend that you re-think your approach towards SC. Address your letter to "Attention: GMAT Complaints". Question Type 2018 2019 Change in GMAT OG 2019 Inference 8 8 none Assumption 14 16 +2 Evaluate 11 7 - 4 Strengthen 28 29 +1 Weaken 24 24 none Bold Face 9 15 +6 Paradox 15 14 -1 FIB 13 11 -2 Flaw 1 0 -1 MOR 1 0 -1 As you can see, there is a clear positive shift in the number of Bold Face questions and a clear negative shift in the number of 'evaluate' questions. Please report violations as soon as possible to: Web: www.pearsonvue.com/contact/gmat/security/ Email: pvttestsecurity@pearson.com Phone/Fax: Contact GMAT Customer Service (and address your fax to "Attention: Test Security") Mail: Address your letter to "Attention: Test Security" and mail to: Pearson VUE 5601 Green Valley Drive Suite 220 Bloomington, MN 55437 USA The GMAT exam helps you stand out during the admissions process. Here is the approach we have followed in this article for the Verbal Section Review of GMAT OG 2019 Analysis: Let's start with the GMAT Sentence Correction Section. So, our conclusion - there is no reduction or increase in the importance of Bold Face questions. Take a look at our article on Necessary vs sufficient conditions GMAT Reading Comprehension Section What has been added to RC? Using the e-GMAT RC course and Official Guide (OG 2017 or OG 2018 or OG 2019), you will get access to more than sufficient number of questions as detailed below. Instructions for SC questions clearly indicate that meaning is so critical in SC questions Sincerely continuing with the importance of meaning, GMAC has revamped instructions for Sentence Correction questions. Here are two excerpts from OG2019 as samples. If you are retaking the GMAT, take a look at this 5-step strategy for a successful GMAT retake How should you prepare for CR? Learn the structured process of solving every type of CR question. Learn grammatical rules in Sentence Correction course. How should you prepare for RC? Our policy is to keep the names of individuals reporting such information confidential. You may view, download, or print your Official Score Report, by visiting My Account. GMAT Critical Reasoning Section - GMAT OG 2019 Analysis What has been added to CR? Step 1 of the process outlined by GMAC in section 9.5 is as shown: "Read the entire sentence carefully. Try to understand the specific idea or relationship that the sentence should express." In section 9.2, while explaining one of the 8 error types "Logical Predication", GMAC uses the following verbiage. Take the one business school exam that elevates you from the rest of the pack. "Correct grammar is by no means the only type of structural relationship that matters for effective communication. Each of the 23 new questions needs to be solved using the meaning based approach. Fine-tune your CR ability by using Scholaranium. How should you prepare for SC? Concluding Remarks As we concluded in the previous article, no significant changes have been made in the GMAT OG 2019 that warrants any change in how you approach your preparation for GMAT. Just continue following the e-GMAT strategies to ace the GMAT and feel free to contact us at payal@gmat if you have any questions pertaining to the GMAT OG 2019 Analysis. Here is the recommended step by step plan for preparing for GMAT Critical Reasoning: Determine your starting point by taking an CR diagnostic in Your Study Plan course. Build your foundation skills of comprehension by using Master Comprehension Course. Questions follow the deep-rooted approach of SC - Meaning The importance of understanding meaning continues to be the theme of SC questions. On the surface, this may indicate that GMAC is laying more emphasis on Bold Face questions, but our deep-dive analysis indicates that there is no real change in the emphasis on Bold Face questions. Here is why - multiple new bold face questions have been created based on same argument by simply changing the bolded statements. Learn how to build argument structure and pre-think by reviewing "Assumption" module in CR course. Build your foundation skills of understanding the passage by reviewing "Inference" module in CR course. Using the e-GMAT RC course and Official Guide (OG2017 or OG2018 or OG2019), you will get access to more than sufficient number of passages (and therefore questions) as detailed below. Using the e-GMAT Sentence Correction course and Official Guide (OG2017 or OG2018 or OG2019), you will get access to more than sufficient number of questions as detailed below. GMAT Sentence Correction Section What has been added to SC? What does that mean for you as a test-taker? Once your scores are reportable, Pearson VUE will send an email. Questions follow the deep-rooted approach of Pre-Thinking in CR The importance of pre-thinking continues to be the theme of all newly added CR questions. Each of the 17 new questions can be solved effectively and efficiently by using pre-thinking approach. One more type of FIB question added in OG2019 As we teach in our CR course, one does not need any additional skills to answer FIB type of questions (Fill in the Blank). This question type is simply another way of asking other question types. Till OG2018, we had seen inference, assumption, strengthen, and weaken type of questions morphed as FIB. In OG2019, parallel reasoning type of question has also been morphed as a FIB question. e-GMAT Course - 23 Scholaranium - 53 GMAT Club Tests - 21 800score tests - 37 Official Guide - 31 So, in all you get access to 165 RC passages of which 81% come from the e-GMAT RC course. Take a free trial and get unlimited access to concept files, live sessions, and practice questions Next, let's take a look at Critical Reasoning - GMAT OG 2019 Analysis. Disability Accommodations In our previous article on "GMAT OG 2019 Analysis", we presented our overall analysis of GMAT OG 2019, the comparative review of OG 2018 vs OG 2019, and our recommendation on whether or not you should invest in the same. Instructions on where to send are located below. As with Sentence Correction and Critical Reasoning, you need to continue following e-GMAT strategies for solving Reading Comprehension questions. Continue honing your skills in applying Reading Strategies as taught in the e-GMAT course. Make sure that you get >90% of the passage in the first read itself. Take proper notes. Understand the characteristics of a correct choice and understand how test maker creates incorrect choices. In short, just follow along the RC course and either OG 2019 or the previous edition to prepare for GMAT RC. Learn how to solve each type of RC question as taught in the RC course. e-GMAT Course - 280 Scholaranium - 252 GMAT Club Tests - 87 800score tests - 150 Official Guide - 124 So, in all, you get access to 893 CR questions of which 86% comes from the e-GMAT course. If you require further assistance, please contact customer@mba.com. Return to top of page Email, fax or mail your complaint to GMAT™ Customer Service. Many new questions cannot be solved if one does not understand the intended meaning of the sentence and purely relies only on the grammatical rules. Here is the step by step plan for preparing for RC. As far as content goes, nothing much has changed. Learn the structured process of solving SC questions as taught in SC course. Determine your starting point by taking an RC diagnostic in Your Study Plan course. Really nothing changes. As long as you are following a structured way of solving CR questions - one that is based on pre-thinking, as long as you are building your core skills of understanding the passage, and as long as you are preparing using the e-GMAT CR course, you will have no problems in achieving 90+ percentile ability in CR.
